Sermon Title: Do Skeletons Have Hope?

Speaker: Richard Smith

Scripture text(s): Ezekiel 37: 1-12

- 1) Do my neighbors see anything different about the way I live?
- 2) Do I want to see God do great things in my life even if that means I have to suffer for Him?
- 3) Am I fully yielded to Jesus Christ?
- 4) Think about the American church as whole. What reasons would churchgoers be content with looking alive but being dead? How can believers combat this attitude of apathy?
- 5) Richard pointed out that Ezekiel relied on God for the dry bones to be reconstructed into humans as well as for God to breath into them to have life again. Does this characterize your relationship with God? What are things that cause you to not rely on God fully?
